

Busy with a Special Project

I stayed right here; I had to pause,
But it's all because of Santa Claus!
He gave me a task, an important one,
To plan a surprise that's full of fun.

I needed to think, to dream, to create,
To make sure your Christmas is truly great.
From puzzles to games, from jokes to delight,
I worked on ideas all through the night.

Santa said, "Elf, make this the best,
This family deserves joy and the rest!
Plan something special, something they'll love,
A moment of magic from the North Pole above."

So I sketched and I planned, I worked with care,
Dreaming of laughter we all can share.
A scavenger hunt? A candy cane maze?
Something to brighten their holiday days!

Tonight, I'll move, I'll make my way,
To prepare more magic for the next day.
Keep your smiles, your laughter, your cheer,
This Christmas season is the best time of year!
